How The Institution Determines Which Type of Proceeding to Use

Under the Clery Act, your policy has to be clear on how the institution determines which proceedings apply under what circumstances

Questions to Consider:

What is the jurisdiction of your policy?

Does it extend to incidents that occur off-campus? Now that Title IX accounts for behaviors that constitute sex harassment that occurred, in part, outside of the United States or education programs or activities if they result in a hostile environment on campus, will you move back to a single set of procedures?

If so, do you use the same proceedings or are there different proceedings?

Does the identity of the respondent influence which type of proceeding the institution uses?

55

Standard of Evidence

The Clery Act

Must describe the standard of evidence that will be used

Title IX

Use preponderance of the evidence standard unless the institution uses the clear and convincing standard of proof in all other comparable proceedings

Sanctions and Remedies-5(r)-2(b)-5(e)]TJETQ EM

Provide that Proceedings Will

The Clery Act

Include a prompt, fair, and impartial process from the initial investigation to the final result
